Illusory news regarding sinking of INS Khukri

†3027. SHRI KRIPAL PARMAR: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that illusory news have been published in some newspapers regarding sinking of INS Khukri at the time of Indo-Pak war while at the time of sinking of the ship, Ex-Chief S.W.A. Shri Chanchal Singh, who was present on the ship, had written a detailed letter to the Minister as per which the facts were quite different and he had requested him to make explicit the facts;

(b) if so, whether it is also a fact that some Members of Parliament have also drawn the attention of the Minister in this regard; and †Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(c) if so, the action that have been taken by the Ministry in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE): (a) to (c) In September, 2004, Shri Chanchal Singh, Ex-Chief Ship Wright Artificer (SWA) wrote a letter stating that news reports published in some newspapers/magazines regarding sinking of INS, Khukri were partially incorrect which needed to be corrected. The essence of his letter was that when INS, Khukri sank due to torpedo hit by an enemy submarine, INS Kirpan (which was deployed with INS, Khukri at that time) left the scene, without caring for the survivors of INS, Khukri. Shri Chanchal Singh saved many of the drowning sailors of INS, Khukri, for which he should have been given a Gallantry award.

The Gallantry and other awards are given on merit and cannot be claimed as a matter of right. Regarding the incident of sinking of INS, Khukri, deeds of all the Naval personnel on board were duly evaluated by the Naval authorities. Shri Chanchal Singh's dedication to duty and courage on board INS, Khukri was also considered and he was given a one time cash award of Rs. 50,000. He was, however, not found deserving for a Gallantry award.

Some Members of Parliament had also written to the Government in this regard and their letters have also been replied to.
